Toloriu is a tiny village, nestled in the Catalan Pyrenees that is almost uninhabited, where almost no one lives anymore. I came to this place looking for a story I heard, some story that I felt it belonged to me: five hundred years ago Joan de Grau, Baron de Toloriu, went to conquer distant lands and on his return he brought Xipahuatzin, an Aztec princess.

As I was trying to find the traces of this legend I was also discovering the whole imagery of this village and its people: their music, their summers, their fear of disappearing... Do we exist beyond the stories we tell?
