This is the story of a mysterious Swedish woman, Karin Lannby (1916-2007): spy, writer and actress. She was a woman who fascinated personalities the likes of Buñuel, Bergman and Cocteau. Following her trail, we embark on an epic adventure that will take us to the Spanish Civil War and through the neutral Stockholm of the Second World War before ending up in Paris. The adventures of this character, who seems to have emerged from a spy film, will lead us to a story in which the line between reality and imagination will be blurred.
