The Prison Bus is a round trip on a bus, one which takes the prisoners with weekend permits out on Friday morning, and brings them back on Monday morning, after 72 hours of freedom. A story that speaks about the illusions we cling to to get ahead. Of the things, big or small, that make us get up every day. The prisoners have them too, and they often coincide with what helps them get through the week inside the prison: the fact that it will soon be Friday again.
