Laura, a sixteen-year-old, has to travel to Seville with her family to attend her great-uncle's funeral. Having been very close to her great-uncle, this trip will have a profound effect on her. Laura will confront death for the first time, through an acceptance and growth for which she was not prepared. La sombra del cerezo is a story based on true events, and it paints the portrait of a family and shows how death affects each person differently.
