In 1961, Justo Gallego decided to build a cathedral honouring Our Lady of the Pillar. Coupling the asceticism and the moral rectitude of a monk with the imagination of an architect and the dexterity of a bricklayer, Justo, at 93 years old, is the living embodiment of an unconventional spiritual path. By his side, Angel, a former gunner, has been helping him for over twenty years. The documentary portrays the day to day of this peculiar space on the outskirts of the Spanish capital. With strokes of surrealism, the story dives into the psyche of these two ambivalent characters that make up the bizarre microcosm of the "Cathedral of Faith".
